I. INTRODUCTION

1. Preface

The 18th Asian Games will be held in Jakarta and Palembang, Indonesia starting from August 18th to September 2nd, 2018.

The Asian Games is an exclusive property of the Olympic Council of Asia (OCA) where the members of OCA come together to enhance the ability of Asian athletes and promote mutual understanding through fair competition. It is the multi-sport festivity within the Asian region held every 4 years.

This publication is to provide the general information about the Olympic Council of Asia, the Member NOCs, Indonesia Asian Games Organizing Committee and overview of the 18th Asian Games Jakarta-Palembang 2018 as well as introduction of Indonesia, the Host Country and the Host City. This publication also contains the technical information for Tennis Sport in the 18th Asian Games Jakarta-Palembang 2018, which is the most important.

It is our honor to provide this Technical Handbook before the start of the 18th Asian Games Jakarta-Palembang 2018. This handbook will serve an important role to all the participating officials and athletes.

Thank you very much.

2. Accreditation and Validation

Asian Games Identification and Accreditation Cards (AGIAC) will act as an entry visa to Indonesia and ensure special access to the Games venues including the HQ Hotel and competition venues. INASGOC will distribute Accreditation Guide and Accreditation Application Forms to Accreditation Responsible Organizations by December 2017. The online Accreditation System start from January 31 until April 30, 2018. INASGOC will distribute the Pre-valid AGIAC to the confirmed participants on July 2018. Upon the arrival in Jakarta – Palembang, pre-valid AGIAC holders should visit one of the accreditation center with their effective identification documents and validate their pre-valid AGIAC. Once validated, AGIAC becomes an official Games document.

3. Immigration and Visa

From July 30 to September 4, 2018, AD Card holders will be permitted upon presentation of their valid passports or travel documents. AD Cards holders will not need to apply for an Indonesian Entry Visa or Residence Permit in order to enter the country.

Any AD Card holders wishing to enter Indonesia before or after the valid period of the AD Card, or to remain in Indonesia after its expiry date, will need to make their own arrangements regarding visas according to Indonesian immigration law. AD Card holders should ensure that the information on their valid passport when entering Indonesia is exactly the same with the information on the certified document used for application for AD Card, and that their passport remain valid at least until February 5, 2019.

4. Transportation

4.1 Transport Services for Arrival and Departure

Shuttle Bus Services will be provided for arriving and departing athletes and team officials, depending on arrival and departure information and flight schedule. Before departure, Shuttle Bus Services require advance reservation.

4.2 Dedicated Vehicle Service

Dedicated Vehicle Services will be provided between Athletes' Village and the designated areas, depending on team events and on the size of NOC participants. Dedicated Vehicle Services require advance reservation and approval.

4.3 Transport Services for Competition (for non-team events)

Shuttle Bus Services for athletes and team officials participating in non-team events will be provided between Athletes' Village and the competition venues as per the competition schedule.

4.4 Transport Services for Training (for non-team events)

Shuttle Bus Services for athletes and team officials participating in non-team events will be provided between Athletes' Village and the training venues as per the training schedule.

4.5 Transport Services for Spectating

The AV-to-venues shuttle will be provided to athletes and team officials wishing to watch other sport competition events. The service is also available to all athletes and team officials who are involved in the same events: priority, however, will be given to athletes and team officials participating in their own events.

✂ Tickets are required for spectating.

4.6 Transport Services for Luggage

The luggage belonging to athletes and team officials should, in principal, be loaded onto the bus they take. If not possible due to insufficient storage space, another vehicle will be provided to the destinations.

5. Accommodation

During the Games time, over 13,000 athletes and team officials including extra officials will be accommodated at Kemayoran Block D10 in Jakarta and Jakabaring Athletes Villages located in Palembang. Opening of Athletes' Village will be on July 16, 2018. A variety of amenities and recreational facilities will be offered for the Games family at Athletes' Village. For the sake of the safety, separate Accreditation Access is required for entering the area.

6. Media

6.1 Mixed Zone

The Mixed zone is an area in which athletes may be interviewed as soon as they leave the field of play. The Mixed Zone is designed to permit the broadcasters and press to interview athletes in a designated area near the field of play. In accordance with OCA's rules, all athletes must pass through the Mixed Zone. Mixed Zone interviews are recommended within limited time each to let the broadcasters and press to have an equal opportunity to speak to the athletes. The AFs and INASGOC Sports Operations Team will provide all necessary assistance to ensure the convenience of Mixed Zone.

6.2 Press Conference

After each event, the designated medallists will attend a press conference at the venue as well as coaches if circumstances dictate. They should accompany to the press conference room. Medallists press conference will be held right after the medal presentation ceremonies at the venue. Sports operational staff will bring athletes to the press conference room. Translation services will be provided with English and Indonesian during the press conferences at the venues. If medallists do not speak English or Indonesian, NOCs are requested to assign an interpreter with the medallists attending the press conference.

7. Medical Service

Medical stations for athletes will be installed at all competition venues and training facilities. On-site medical treatment and emergency transfer service will be provided during operating period. Polyclinic in the Athletes' Village will provide treatment and consultation by professional medical staff across the departments of internal medicine, general surgery (including orthopaedics), ophthalmology, stomatology, medical imaging, physical therapy, pharmacy, etc.

It will also have an emergency room open 24 hours a day, with stand-by ambulances. Any patient who needs further diagnosis and treatment will be transferred to designated hospitals of the Games.

Where accredited persons including OCA Family VIP guests, NOC guests suffer from acute diseases, acute exacerbations of chronic diseases or acute injuries, they can receive treatment in Polyclinic or designated hospitals for free of charge. Services may include emergency treatment, in-patient service, special consultation and ambulance transfer, if required. However, free medical services will not include selective or unnecessary treatment.

8. Host Country/City Information

8.1 Indonesia in Brief

Indonesia, officially the Republic of Indonesia (Indonesian: Republik Indonesia) is located mainly in Southeast Asia with some territories in Oceania. Situated between the Indian and Pacific Oceans, it is the world's largest island country, with more than thirteen thousand islands. It has an estimated population of over 260 million people (September 2016) and is the world's fourth most populous. Muslim-majority country. The world's most populous island of Java contains more than half of the country's population.

Indonesia's republican form of government includes an elected legislature and president. Indonesia has 34 provinces, of which five have Special Administrative status. Its capital and most populous city is Jakarta. The country shares land borders with Papua New Guinea, East Timor, and the eastern part of Malaysia. Other neighbouring countries include Singapore, the Philippines, Australia, Palau and the Indian territory of the Andaman and Nicobar Islands. Indonesia is a founding member of ASEAN and a member of the G-20 major economies. The Indonesian economy is the world's 16th largest by nominal GDP and the 8th largest by GDP at PPP.

Indonesia consists of hundreds of distinct native ethnic and linguistic groups. The largest - and politically dominant - ethnic group are the Javanese. A shared identity has developed, defined by a national language, ethnic diversity, religious pluralism within a Muslim-majority population, and a history of colonialism and rebellion against it. Indonesia's national motto "Bhineka Tunggal Ika" ("Unity in Diversity" literally, "many, yet one"), articulates the diversity that shapes the country. Despite its large population and densely populated regions, Indonesia has vast areas of wilderness that support the world's second highest level of biodiversity.

8.2 Jakarta in Brief

Geography

The Special Capital Region of Jakarta, is the capital and most populous city of Indonesia. Located on the northwest coast of the world's most populous island of Java, the city is the center of economics, culture and politics of Indonesia, with a population of 10,075,310 as of 2014. Greater Jakarta metropolitan area, which is known as Jabodetabek (a name formed by combining the initial syllables of Jakarta, Bogor, Depok, Tangerang and Bekasi), is the second largest urban agglomeration in the world, with population of 30,214,303 inhabitants as of 2010 census. Jakarta's business opportunities, as well as its potential to offer a higher standard of living, attract migrants from all over Indonesian archipelago, making the city a melting pot of many communities and cultures.

Climate

Jakarta has a tropical monsoon climate (Am) according to the Köppen climate classification system. The wet season in Jakarta covers the majority of the year, running from October through May. The remaining four months (June through September) constitute the city's drier season (each of these 4 months has an average monthly rainfall of less than 100 millimeters (3.0in)). Located in the western part of Java. Jakarta's wet season rainfall peak in January and February with average monthly rainfall of 299.7 millimeters (11.80 in), and its dry season low point is August with a monthly average of 43.2 mm (1.70 in).

Tourism

Most of the visitors attracted to Jakarta are domestic tourists from all over Indonesia. Jakarta is trying to attract more international tourist by MICE tourism, by arranging increasing numbers of conventions. As the gateway of Indonesia, Jakarta often serves as the stop-over for foreign visitors of their way to Indonesian popular tourist destinations such as Bali, Lombok and Yogyakarta. Most of the renowned international hotel chains have presence in the city.

Other than monuments, landmarks, and museums around Merdeka square and Jakarta Old Town, tourist attractions of the city include Thousand Islands, Taman Mini Indonesia Indah, Setu Babakan, Ragunan Zoo, Sunda Kelapa old port and the Ancol Dreamland complex on Jakarta Bay, including Duynia Fantasi (Fantasy World) theme park, Sea World, Atlantis Water Adventure, and Gelanggang Samudra.

8.3 Palembang in Brief

Geography

Palembang is the second-largest city on Sumatra island after Medan and the capital city of the South Sumatra province in Indonesia. It is one of the oldest cities in the Malay Archipelago and Southeast Asia. Palembang is located on the Musi River banks on the east coast of Southern Sumatra, with a land area of 369.22 square kilometres (142.56 square miles) and Palembang is the sixth-largest city in Indonesia after Jakarta, Surabaya, Bandung, Medan and Semarang. Its built-up (or metro) area with Talang Kelapa and Rambutan was home to 1,620,429 inhabitants at the 2010 census.

At 2°59'10' S 104°45'20" E, Palembang occupies 400.61 km² of vast lowland area east of Bukit Barisan Mountains in southern in Sumatra with average elevation of 8 metres (26 feet), approximately 105 kilometres (65 miles) from nearby coast at Bangka Strait. One of the largest rivers in Sumatra, the Musi Rivers, runs through the city, dividing the city area into two major parts which are Seberang Ilir in the north and Seberang Ulu in the south. Palembang is also located on the confluence of two major tributaries of Musi River, which are Ogan River and Komering River. The river's water level is influenced by tidal cycle. In rainy season, many areas on the city are inundated by the river's tide.

Palembang's topography is quite different between Seberang Ilir and Seberang Ulu area. Seberang Ulu topography is relatively flat, meanwhile Seberang Ilir topography is more rugged with altitude variation between 4 and 20 metres (13 and 66 feet).

Climate

Palembang is located in the tropical rainforest climate with significant rainfall even in its driest months. The climate in Palembang is often described with "hot, humid climate with a lot of rainfall throughout the year". The annual average temperature is around 27.3 °C (81.1 °F). Average temperatures are nearly identical throughout the year in the city. Average rainfall annually is 2,623 millimeters. During its wettest months, the city's lowlands are frequently inundated by torrential rains. However, in its driest months, many peatlands around the city dried, making them more vulnerable to wildfires, causing haze in the city for months.

Tourism

Ampera Bridge, main city landmark, is a bridge crossed over 1,177 metres (3,862 feet) above the Musi River which connects Seberang Ulu and Seberang Ilir area of Palembang. Great Mosque of Palembang, also known as the Sultan Mahmud Badaruddin II Mosque, is located in the city centre.

Benteng Kuto Besak, situated on the northern bank of the Musi River and adjacent to Ampera Bridge, this fort is one of the Palembang Darussalam Sultanate of heritage buildings. The fort's interior has been turned into military hospital of the Tentara Nasional Indonesia, specifically the Health Department of Military Area Command II/Sriwijaya (Kesehatan Daerah Militer II/Sriwijaya).

Kampung Arab Al-Munawar, a mixture of middle eastern and Palembang Malay culture and architecture. It has been long known that any visitors should dress politely in order to visit this area.

Kampung Kapitan, the home of one of the oldest Chinese stilt house in the city. The primary attraction is Tjoa Ham Hin's house with centuries-old furniture inside. There was also a nearby Chinese temple, which was one of the oldest in Palembang as well. Long before its existence as the Chinese settlement area, it was also called Tanggo Rajo where foreigners and newcomers from the archipelago stayed at.

Kantor Ledeng, located in the city centre, at first this building served as a water tower. Today this building serves as the mayor office of Palembang. Kambang Iwak, a lake located in the tourist centre of the city close to Palembang mayor's residence. On the banks of this lake, there is a park and recreation arena which is always crowded during holidays.

Punti Kayu Tourism Forest, city forest located about six miles (9.7 kilometres) from the city centre with an area of 50 hectares (120 acres) and since 1998 designated as protected forests. In this forest there is a family recreation area and a local shelter a group of monkeys: long-tail macaque (Macaca fascicularis) and monkey (Macaca nemistriana) under the Sumatran Pine wood (Pinus mercurii).

Sriwijaya Kingdom Archaeological Park, the remnants of Sriwijaya site located on the banks of the River Musi. There is an inscription and stone relics, complex of ancient pond, artificial island and canals dated from the Sriwijayan kingdom in this area. The Sriwijaya Museum is located in this complex.

Bukit Seguntang archaeological park, located in the hills west of Palembang city. In this place there are many relics and tombs of the ancient Malay-Sriwijayan king and nobles.

Monumen Perjuangan Rakyat / Monpera, located in the city centre, adjacent to the Great Mosque and Ampera Bridge. As its name in this building there are relics of history in the colonial period.

Museum Sultan Mahmud Badaruddin II, located near the Ampera Bridge and adjacent to Benteng Kuto Besak. The building located in the former royal palace of Palembang Sultanate. The museum displayed the relics and historical objects with collections spanned from Sriwijaya Kingdom period to Palembang Darussalam Sultanate era.

Rumah Limas of IDR 10000 banknote is now located in Museum Balaputradewa, Palembang.

Museum Balaputradewa, the home of Rumah Limas featured on IDR 10000 banknote. This type of stilt house is the traditional house of the people of Palembang.

8.4 West Java in Brief

The population of West Java was put at 43,054,000 in mid-2010 making it the most populous province of Indonesia, home to 18% of the national total on 1.8% of the national land. Aside from the special district of Jakarta, it is the most densely populated province in the country with an average of 1,236 people per km² (2010 data). The population growth rate recorded in the ten years to 2010 was 1.9%

Tourism

Endowed with natural beauty and rich culture, tourism is also an important industry in West Java. The Puncak area and Bandung have long been known as popular weekend destinations for Jakartans. Today Bandung has developed into a chic and fashionable shopping destination, popular not only among local Indonesian especially Jakartans, but also a popular shopping destination for neighboring Malaysian and Singaporeans. The ancient coastal city of Cirebon is also popular as cultural tourism destination since the city has several kratons and many historical sites such as Gua Sunyaragi. Other popular tourism destinations include the Bogor Botanical Garden, Taman Safari Indonesia, Tangkuban Perahu crater, Ciater hot springs, Kawah Putih crater to the south of Bandung, Pangandaran beach, and various mountain resorts in Cianjur, Garut, Tasikmalaya, and Kuningan.
